Reflection & Living Stewardship

In the second reading today, St. Paul reminds the Colossians that they have been raised with Christ, exhorting them to “be intent on the things above rater than on things of earth.” We too have been raised with Christ. Let us rejoice and be glad!

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who, like St. Paul, give witness for the “good news” of salvation, especially through extending mercy to others.

Easter

It’s not just a story. Jesus didn’t sit in a palace ordering people around or asking others to fight His battles. Jesus is the only King who lived among His people, served His people and died for His people. Remember as you celebrate Easter and teach the children - Jesus really died for each and every one of us. Rejoice! He is risen!

Our next meeting is Monday, April 4th at 7:30 PM in Church. Please call (516) 993-9672 for prayer requests or more information.

Pastor’s Letter

This Easter, I want to speak about a very controversial figure. Some people have come to love him very much while others are totally opposed to him. This is a man who has said many controversial things that have offended many people. Many things are written about him. He is part of many conversations. He has expressed his beliefs about the treatment of immigrants, the distribution of wealth, and concerns about the poor. I have a friend who loves his hair. He has written a bestselling book. Of course, I am speaking of Jesus of Nazareth!

I must confess I stole the idea to begin my Easter letter from Father Paul Scalia, the son of the late Antonin Scalia. Father began his homily for his dad in this way: “We are gathered here because of one man, a man known personally to many of us, known only by reputation to many more; a man loved by many, scorned by others; a man known for great controversy and for great compassion.” After a theatrical pause, he added, “That man, of course, is Jesus of Nazareth.”

Since early in the first century the proclamation by the first Christians that “Jesus who was crucified has been raised from the dead just as he promised. He is alive and we have seen him!” This truth has had the most profound impact on the world. It is because of the Resurrection of Jesus that you have come to celebrate this Mass here today. It is because of this proclamation that countless people have given their lives as martyrs, and they are still dying in some countries of the Mid-East and Africa.

The Resurrection has led to the poor being fed, the dying cared for, hospitals being built for the sick, orphanages raised up for the care of children without parents, programs for adoption, the homeless being sheltered, prisoners being visited, the aging being comforted, and generation after generation of children being educated about the Lord Jesus Christ. Peacemakers have prayed for an end to war in His Name and the Resurrection has given rise to a great call for justice and mercy. Every Catholic Mass celebrated from the greatest cathedrals of Europe, or on the top of a Jeep on a battlefield, on a card table in a nursing home, in a small village church, or in the open streets of a Barrio all celebrate the same reality through the mystery of the Holy Spirit as we hear, “Christ has died; Christ has Risen; Christ will come again!”

This message of the Resurrection of Jesus has been passed on through the power of the Holy Spirit and faith filled communities like yourselves here today. This glorious message has survived terrible persecutions, wars, great natural disasters, heresies, and corruption within itself. But the fundamental message of earth first experienced almost two thousand years ago, will be spoken in almost every language known to us over this Easter Season. Christ has died; Christ has risen; Christ will come again.

As I think about the past year, I am struck by how many funerals we’ve had in our parish. It was a little more than a year ago that we buried Deacon Gene Capobianco and about six months since Deacon Jim Biggin went home to God. Some of the funerals I celebrate are ones where I know the deceased very well, and others, I know little about them since they may have been away from the parish for many years only to return for the final celebration here at St. Martin’s. There are funerals with many family and friends attending, and others with just a few in church. This past year we have buried some men and women who were part of the Greatest Generation, those that went to war against Hitler and responded to the call of Pearl Harbor. Even though people come with faith, there is always sadness at saying goodbye to loved one, no matter how long they have lived.
When I go to the wake, I meet with the family of the deceased and try to learn about the person so I can connect him or her to the readings from the Word of God that the family chooses. How often I hear that the loved one was a good spouse, a good parent, a loving grandparent, a person who loved God. That is certainly high praise. I almost always chose the Easter Gospel for my sermon.

I find myself saying this during the homily:

The Gospel for today continues the theme of the Resurrection of Jesus and the promise that we too shall rise with him. Some of the women disciples of Jesus go to the tomb on Easter Sunday morning to anoint his body with oils and spices. Since the Sabbath was upon the community, there was not enough time for a proper burial. The disciples rushed to bury Jesus before sundown. He is placed in a borrowed tomb carved out of a cave and a large stone rolled against it. As the women approach the tomb, they see the stone was rolled away. When they enter the cave, they do not see the body of Jesus. They are frightened thinking that someone has stolen our Lord’s body. Then they see two angelic figures who say to them, Why do you look for the living among the dead. He is not here. He is risen from the dead just as he said he would.

At the funeral Mass, we see the body of our loved one here in Church, but the deceased is not here. Whatever made that person who he was, whether it be the love of a spouse, the love of children and family, a lifetime of memories, all his hopes and dreams, or his goodness and faith in God, this is what made up his personality - his very being. Our loved one’s soul is alive! We do not look for the living among the dead. They are with God, more alive than ever before on earth. They still have great love for us, and we know that one day we shall see them again.

We do not look for the living among the dead.

Are you sixteen or over, have been baptized but never received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

Perhaps you are getting married and would like to received this special sacrament before you celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony, or for whatever reason you never received Confirmation.

We are able to confirm you at Mass on Pentecost Sunday, May 15th. To be confirmed, you would need to attend three preparation classes for the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation. This is a beautiful way to receive the great blessings of the Holy Spirit. Class times will be in the evening and dates will soon be posted. If you are interested, please contact the parish office 931-0818 or Father Pat at woodscssr@aol.com.
I was very happy with our recent Parish Assembly held on Saturday, March 19th. I would say a little more than one hundred people attended. I am fully conscious that others would have liked to attend but there were conflicts with other parish meetings, family events, and other needs. We began with a Mass in honor of St. Joseph, and as always, Elena and the musical team led us in a prayerful gathering. Afterward we went to Emmaus Hall (the parish cafeteria). Breakfast of baked goods was provided by the St. Clement Bakers. These men and women are a great gift to our parish and so very generous with their time, talent, and treasure since they pay for the goods they baked. Thank you all so much!

Here are some of what was presented and discussed at the assembly. I am very conscious that is it a great challenge to summarize a meeting of two hours where many issues were addressed. Certainly, no final decision has been made on the majority of the topics, but here are some of my thoughts from the meeting:

Some General Background
- Parishioners love this parish and care about it now and for its future.
- People felt comfortable in speaking their own minds about issues in a respectful way.
- There was a general tone of respect for the ideas that were expressed by others, even if the person disagreed with what was said.
- I found the people quite open regarding the challenges facing us in the future.
- There is a clear, well-known reality that any change is hard for some of us.

1. The Use of the Remaining Funds for the care of the Church and other areas of our property.
   Report on the Capital Campaign which ends in December of 2016.
   - 881 Donors
   - Total Pledged: $1,761,625.60
   - Total Received: $1,467,040.40
   - Pledges to be collected: $294,585.20

- Currently, there is $292,959.93 in the Capital Campaign checking account.
- It looks like we will have approximately $500,000.00 to use for the needs of the parish.

Bottom Line Expenses
Total paid to date: $1,162,371.06 which is all the work that has been done so far, namely the parking lot, brick work on the school, school roof, renovation of the food pantry, work on our heating systems, and other repairs.

- Presently our only outstanding capital campaign bill is $12,200.
- The estimated cost of $350,000 to turn the auditorium into a gym was discussed. This idea was part of the planning of the capital campaign.
- Other needs of the parish that were not raised at the time of the capital campaign:
  - painting the inside of the Church at an approximate cost of $60,000.00
  - painting the outside of the church which is in serious need at an approximate cost of $50,000.00
  - ramp for entrance into Emmaus Hall at a cost of $30,000.00
  - new Church doors approximately $45,000.00
- The people at the gathering generally favored funding these needs rather than the gym. However, some felt a need to attract the young and that a gym would help. Adults of the parish could also use it.
The most popular idea of the day was to have a ramp that could lead into Emmaus Hall (the cafeteria). This seems possible in terms of cost and so forth and will be seriously studied.

An elevator is beyond the cost of our funds.

2. 4:00PM Saturday Mass or a 5:00PM Saturday Mass
   - The idea of moving the 5:00PM Mass to 4:00PM was discussed at length and issues about weddings and confessions also surfaced.

   It seems that the majority of people at this meeting would prefer leaving the Mass time of 5:00PM as is. Certainly, I will seek a wider consultation on this issue as well as for the other topics that were discussed.

3. Eliminating a Mass
   - The idea of cutting out one Mass in the next two years was discussed. The main reason for this is to plan for the future when there will less clergy available. Also, I believe liturgy and Mass in enhanced by a larger congregation.

   We discussed the 7:00PM Mass on Saturday and the 1:00PM Mass on Sunday as Masses with the lowest attendance. This was a sensitive discussion because some people have been going to these Masses all their lives. The idea of taking out one of the Sunday morning Masses and changing the Mass times to have more time between the Masses was discussed. We now have five Masses on Sunday mornings (and the sixth being the LifeTeen Mass). We clearly need further information in terms of eliminating a Mass. My sense is that people are fine with eliminating a Mass as long as it is not the one they attend.

4. Creating a Memorial for those who donated to the Paving the Way for Christ Campaign
   - This was promised at the time we generated funds for the campaign.
   - There does not seem to be appropriate space in the church or gathering areas for any recognition so we might have to do a memorial outside.
   - A presentation on a memorial where the donors would have a brick placed in the ground near the outdoor Blessed Mother statue was discussed. This would cost approximately $15,000.00. Some thought that too expensive and wanted something simpler or nothing at all. Further consultation is needed.

5. We have a presentation on the planning for Alpha
   - Alpha (which means beginning in Greek) is a program the Discipleship Committee has been studying over the past year. It is an evangelization program that is geared toward parishioners, but most especially to those who have drifted from the faith. It stresses a personal relationship with Jesus. It is a ten week program and a session consists of dinner, a video and discussion. All toll, a session would be about an hour and a half. This is a great way to deepen our relationship with Jesus and a proven way to reach out to others. We will need volunteers to step forward if the program is to work.
ANNOUNCING
ST. MARTIN OF TOURS ADULT EDUCATION COURSE IN THEOLOGY

THE DECEIVER
(The Daily Human Struggle Against Evil)

Cardinal Walter Kasper tells us that the basic Christian attitude before the reality of evil is not one of fear but of hope in the definitive destruction of evil by the victory of Christ over Satan.

The Deceiver of humanity is always at work in his ordinary and typical activity that can be characterized in four ways: deception, division, diversion and discouragement. In a word, he uses these areas to move us away from the God of love.

Join us as we come together prayerfully to discover and unmask the various ruses that Satan uses to divert us from God by using our unique human susceptibility against us. Knowing our enemy and his strategy can only benefit us in the daily struggle against evil which is the common lot of all humanity.

If the Spirit is attracting you, pay attention to it.
Do something for your spiritual and intellectual growth by attending this course.

It was the much in Magdalene that Jesus loved.
For as Mark says,
“He was too much for them.”
Like a woman who loves too much,
Like an ointment that costs too much,
And is spilled too much,
Like a seventy times seven God,
Who forgives too much,
Like a seed that grows too much,
And yields thirty
Sixty
A hundred fold.

One Solitary Life
By James Allan Francis 1864 - 1928

Here is a man who was born in an obscure village as the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another obscure village. He worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty and then for three years he was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never owned a home. He never had a family. He never went to college. He never put his foot inside a big city. He never traveled two hundred miles from the place where he was born.

He never did one of the things that usually accompany greatness. He had no credentials but himself. He had nothing to do with this world except the naked power of his divine manhood. While he was still a young man, the tide of popular opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. One of them denied him. Another betrayed him. He was turned over to his enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed upon the cross between two thieves.

His executioners gambled for the only piece of property he had on earth while he was dying, and that was his coat. When he was dead, he was taken down and laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend. Nineteen wide centuries have come and gone, and today he is the center of the human race and the leader of the column of progress.

I am far within the mark when I say that all the armies that ever marched, and all the navies that were ever built, and all the parliaments that ever sat and all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man upon the earth as powerfully as has this one solitary life.
